

Arts ALIVE!

The Clark State Performing Arts Center, Springfield Museum of Art, Springfield City Schools and Wittenberg University are members of the Partners in Education program of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Selected because of the demonstrated commitment to education through the arts, the Arts ALIVE! Partnership Team participates in collaborative efforts to make the arts integral to the school curriculum.

Arts Integration: Strategies for Core Subjects & Social Curriculum

Do you recognize the power of the arts in learning?

Join us and learn to harness the power of the arts in your classroom! Present lessons with deeper engagement across your curriculum, and share positive communication and anti-bullying strategies with your students.

Presenter Karen L. Erickson has worked with schools and arts organizations throughout the country and will present the John F. Kennedy Center's philosophy and practices for integrating the arts into your teaching. Through active exercises you'll uncover the characteristics of quality arts integration and take away successful strategies to use with your students.
